- TrustRadius: CrowdStrike won 2022 Top Rated awards for the following categories: Antivirus, Cloud Computing Security, Incident Response, Intrusion Detection, MDR, Threat Intelligence and Vulnerability Management.

“Our customers have spoken. CrowdStrike is the undisputed market leader in endpoint security, and the recognition from G2, PeerSpot and TrustRadius is another proof point of the value we deliver to our customers. We consistently hear from customers that they choose CrowdStrike because our products simply work,” said Amol Kulkarni, chief product and engineering officer at CrowdStrike. “Customer feedback is one of the most valuable tools to determine how well your product is performing in the market, and we are proud to have earned the trust of so many organizations around the world.”

Customer Reviews

- “We were using Windows Defender before Falcon. [...] With Falcon installed, I know that we'll find out if our users get attacked or compromised so that we can deal with it right away,” said a director of IT at a mid-market company (via G2).
- “We evaluated 10 different solutions in the EDR space [including] Microsoft's ~~ATP~~ CrowdStrike was a little better, cost-wise [...]. Also, I felt that the console for managing the platform was easier for my team,” said a director, IT & systems security at Tilson (via PeerSpot).
- “The features for CrowdStrike Falcon far outweigh the competition. From the cloud infrastructure, implementation, deployment, and even the support staff, [CrowdStrike] Falcon is beyond anything that we have used,” said a technical support specialist at Northwestern University (via TrustRadius).
