

CrowdStrike Named a Leader in Managed Detection and Response (MDR) in Europe by Independent Research Firm

CrowdStrike achieved the highest scores across Current Offering and Strategy as the report cites a “stellar MDR offering”

READING, UK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 4, 2023-- CrowdStrike (Nasdaq: CRWD) today announced that Forrester Research, Inc. named CrowdStrike a Leader in The Forrester Wave™: Managed Detection And Response Services In Europe, Q4 2023¹. According to the report, “CrowdStrike’s stellar MDR offering backed by advanced XDR capabilities and a commitment to cybersecurity research puts it ahead of its European peers.” CrowdStrike has been named a Leader in both The Forrester Wave™: Managed Detection and Response Services In Europe, Q4 2023 and The Forrester Wave™: Managed Detection and Response, Q2 2023

CrowdStrike received the highest scores in the Current Offering and Strategy categories while receiving the highest scores possible in 13 of the 22 sub-criteria. According to the report, “at the core of CrowdStrike’s MDR service is a deep expertise in threat intelligence and incident response. Its roots in these areas shine through in its focus on robust telemetry and rapid analysis.”

“As a pioneer in MDR and adversary intelligence, CrowdStrike Falcon Complete is consistently recognized by customers, analysts and third-party awards programs as the industry’s leading MDR offering, providing 24/7 end-to-end managed detection, threat hunting, full-cycle response and remediation to help customers stop breaches, while freeing up time for their teams,” said Tom Etheridge, chief global services officer at CrowdStrike. “In the face of an industry-wide skills shortage, Falcon Complete provides organizations with round-the-clock protection from the world’s most skilled cybersecurity professionals and technology that acts as a seamless extension of internal cybersecurity teams.”
