

Fal.Con 2024 Welcomes Record Number of Partner Sponsors to the Cybersecurity Event of the Year

CrowdStrike's global partner ecosystem gathers at Fal.Con 2024 to shape a more secure and resilient future

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 9, 2024-- CrowdStrike (NASDAQ: CRWD) today announced a record 97 partners as exhibiting sponsors at Fal.Con, cybersecurity's premier user conference. Taking place September 16-19 at the ARIA in Las Vegas, Fal.Con 2024 will bring together a record 6,000 in-person attendees representing 2,300 of the world's leading organizations from 60 countries to shape the future of cybersecurity.

CrowdStrike's global partner ecosystem is a key component in delivering CrowdStrike's mission of stopping breaches by providing best-in-class technology, support, customized services, market expertise and access to organizations around the world. Partners such as AWS, CDW, Cloudflare, Cribl, Dell, Deloitte, eSentire, ExtraHop, Google Cloud, GuidePoint Security, HCLTech, Intel, Mimecast, NinjaOne, Okta, Optiv, Proofpoint, Vanta, Tines, WWT, Zscaler, and more are sponsoring Fal.Con 2024 to drive innovation and go-to-market strategies with the CrowdStrike Falcon® cybersecurity platform.

"Our partner-first go-to-market approach is core to 'we stop breaches' – a mission and mantra that defines CrowdStrike. Fal.Con 2024 epitomizes this strategy, uniting nearly 100 partner sponsors spanning the cybersecurity ecosystem," said Daniel Bernard, chief business officer, CrowdStrike. "Our partners, the leading security and IT companies in the world, choose the Falcon platform to simplify cybersecurity, protect their customers and build a more secure AI-native future. Our ecosystem is a living example of resilience: CrowdStrike uniting cybersecurity to secure organizations of all sizes."

CrowdStrike's partner ecosystem will be on full display throughout the four-day conference. Fal.Con 2024 kicks off on Monday, September 16, with CrowdStrike's annual Global Partner Summit where more than 1,000 partner participants will come together for a day dedicated to CrowdStrike ecosystem innovations and partner go-to-market initiatives. Monday also marks the opening of the Fal.Con Hub, where attendees can engage with live, hands-on demos of the latest cutting-edge cybersecurity offerings which integrate with the CrowdStrike Falcon platform.

The Fal.Con Hub will host the Partner Power Theatre, showcasing partner stories and their unique integrations with the Falcon platform. Partners will be highlighted throughout breakout session programming at Fal.Con with leaders from Google Cloud, Intel, NVIDIA and Zscaler leading sessions on key topics, including Cloud Security, AI security, IT Automation and Next-Gen SIEM. Additionally, AWS and Deloitte will collaborate for the first ever Women in Cyber Lunch bringing together women and friends at Fal.Con for a panel discussion on leadership and strategy in the industry.
