

Fal.Con 2025: CrowdStrike and Partners Define the Future of Security Through Ecosystem Innovation

September 8, 2025

A record-breaking partner network joins forces with CrowdStrike to innovate with AI, secure AI, and deliver stronger outcomes – proving the unmatched strength of the Crowd

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 8, 2025-- CrowdStrike (NASDAQ: CRWD) today announced that Fal.Con 2025 will feature a record 115+ sponsors, led by Amazon Web Services (AWS), Dell Technologies, Google Cloud, Intel, NVIDIA, and Salesforce. The four-day conference has reached capacity with more than 8,000+ attendees from 3,000 organizations across 65 countries.

Major systems integrators Accenture, Deloitte, and EY will demonstrate how customers achieve breakthrough security outcomes on the CrowdStrike Falcon® platform.

"When this many industry leaders choose the same platform, it's not coincidence – it's consolidation," said Daniel Bernard, chief business officer at CrowdStrike. "Our partners are innovating with us, our customers are winning with us, and together we're defining what cybersecurity becomes in the agentic AI era. The numbers speak for themselves – this is where the future becomes the new reality."

The conference kicks off Monday, September 15, with the Global Partner Summit, where more than 1,000 participants will come together to accelerate agentic AI innovation, expand joint routes to market, and deliver stronger outcomes with the Falcon platform.

Opening the same day, the Fal.Con Hub will be the center of collaboration and innovation, featuring immersive demos, customer success stories, and joint activations from across the ecosystem. The Partner Theatre will showcase integrations and customer impact, while breakout sessions led by key partners will tackle the industry's most pressing challenges, from securing AI and cloud environments, to identity security, exposure management, Next-Gen SIEM, and more.
